

Night at the Museums

Tuesday, June 21, 2016
4:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Fifteen New York museums will be open late on one special night as part of Lower Manhattan Cultural Council's "Night at the Museums," offering after-hour tours and special programming.

Ranger-led tours of Federal Hall will be held at 5 PM, 6 PM and 7 PM. The tour explores the long and varied history of this park site as an inaugural site that hosted George Washington, a location of many colonial events that led to basic rights that Americans enjoy today, the site of our nation's first customs house, and a New York sub-treasury.

The photographic exhibit "In the Footsteps of John Muir" is currently on display in the Main Rotunda at Federal Hall.

Junior Ranger programs will be available for the kids.
